“ I am blessed to have known Pa for my entire life. As a child he was always caring, interested, and sincere toward me. He was just a person you liked to be around due to his loving nature. As an adult it was always a pleasure to spend time with him. He was a really good golfer. I recall being on vacation in Gulf Shores, Alabama visiting he and Marge with his eldest grandson SJP4 and they both Pa and Marge that is graciously kicked out butts on the golf course!!! His fun loving spirit never changed. On one occasion when he visited my home in Florida and he endured an impromptu musical performance by my kids in our living room 9 and 5 years old at the time if I recall correctly, and upon completion he slipped them both a few dollars as encouragement. He was simply a great man who will be missed on earth. Heaven is a better place today since there is no doubt he is there.
