“ Our deepest condolences to Steven’s loving family on the loss of your dear son and brother, as well as his many other family members and friends. The loss of this precious child is so overwhelming and heartbreaking. Carol, Darrel, Doug and Jason, please know how much you are in our hearts and continued thoughts.

I feel that raising our families together was a continued blessing, Carol, until both our families moved apart twenty years ago. Thinking about Steven when he was young, he was always on the quieter side, but always had a quick smile and a politeness about him. When I think of him, I will always remember that sweet boy.

Steven often demonstrated his kind nature and various abilities. He also deserves much credit for the valiant effort and willpower that he put into fighting an illness that took away the best parts of him.

Our loving thoughts are with you today and always. Please reach out whenever you need.

Love, Alan Frank and Diane Shearer
