“ Kara you were so kind when I lost my Mom with all of the phone calls you made to me...I would really like to do something special for you. Would you like a memory quilt made out of Steve's T-shirts?

“ Kara, Megan and Jamie,
I am deeply saddened to have lost a kind and generous friend. I as many others were blessed to have Steve's friendship. I can not tell you how much it has meant over the years that Steve has never treated me as a 3rd wheel, accepted us for who we are, and generously shared his time , talents, muscle and wealth with myself and Lauren and Jaime. How he lived his life is a wonderful example for us all.

The journey ahead will not be easy without him , but use his quiet strength to help you move ahead and lean on all of those whose life he touched to help you through. Please know that the three of us will always be there to lend support and a listening ear. Love to you all and the whole Boelstler family.

“ When Debe and Richard moved to Michigan I was so sad to know they were so far away. When I met the Boelster family I knew they would be okay. I love y'all with all my heart. When I came to keep Hunter and Fisher for the week while they went on a trip it was Steve and Kara who made me know I didn't mind being in a city I didn't know. I did this for a few years. One year was the worst! They had just got on a plane when I got news my baby girl had died in a car accident. Steve and Kara took care of me and the boys. Kara made the flight arrangements it took to get me home early. Steve and family and the boys and I headed to Detroit Airport in a snow storm. Steve said you don't worry about the boys we will take care of them. I couldn't have asked for a better family to get me home through such a hard time. I pray now for Kera Jamie and Meghan to have peace knowing he was the greatest husband and father in the world. He will always be in your heart and soul! Thanks for making me always feel welcome and part of your lives. Love you so much!

“ The 'Secret' That Is No Surprise To Anyone I Am Sure:

There was a time when I was down and out. Recently split up from my husband, all 3 kids living with me, and doing it financially on my own. It was ok though. I did not complain or cry. I felt blessed. I had a roof, food, and my children's love. Some kinds of people though are the kinds of people that are always putting themselves in other's shoes. Steve and Kara are always slipping outta their flip flops or hiking boots to take a stroll in someone else's shoes. So they paid me a surprise visit to my newly rented lil Roseville house and sat me on my couch and gave me a gift of money. I said no no no and they said yes yes yes. And they said to not pay them back but to pay it forward. I never got to tell Steve I did pay it forward. It would have embarrassed him I think to even ever bring it up again. A friend was behind in his electric and gas bill and near shut off with 3 kids in the house, so I paid him up to date. With the condition to not pay me back but to pay it forward. I believe there is a whole lot of strings of pay it forewards going on right now because of this kind and generous man and his wife.

“ Kara and girls my heart breaks for you. I know Steve (husband, father, son, brother) played an important part in the lives of many. He was a prankster, but he also had such a loving down to earth way about him. We have so many loving memories that we shared. Sailing, camping , skiing, Lexington and many more. We are sending our deepest sympathies to you. Lots of prayers, hugs, and love as you try to move forward. One step at a time.

“ My Dear Kara, Megan and Jamie, My heart breaks for you and all of your family. I am so incredibly saddened at your loss and am keeping you close in my thoughts and prayers. I hope it brings you comfort to know that so many are thinking of you. Although I didn't see him often, Steve always shared a smile and a hug whenever I saw him. I always thought of him as a gentle soul, and I am certain he will be missed dearly. As you said to me Tuesday "We're DeCooks, we know the drill". We do indeed.

"He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." Rev. 21:4

Rest peacefully Steve.
