“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. I remember times when Steven and his brother helped my mother-in-law with things she needed done at the house. He was always so kind and cheerful. I sincerely wish you all comfort and strength at this very sad time and in the future as well. I don't know why these things happen, but I do believe that God has his purpose, and even though it's hard to accept, I do believe that purpose is good and that some day we will understand. Love and God bless, Carolyn Grzecki

“ We had the pleasure of meeting Steve and Jeff through Van Jaarveld's Decorating Center. While "the boys" were painting our home, Wendy would do Slurpy runs to keep her husband and brother-in-law happy and hydrated. My husband and I instantly felt a deep connection especially when Steve and I were sharing our cancer stories. Len and I feel so blessed that we have come to know Steve, Wendy, Jeff, Andrew, and Carson. Steve will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your precious family. “ So sorry for loss. All though I never met Steven, I have visited the whole family through Sylvia's stories and updates, and through her pictures. Steven is now free of his worldly pain and sufferings. May the Lord bless and guide everyone toward their emotional and mental healing. May the Lord also watch over and protect all of his family, blessing each with the understanding that one day you will all be together in the Lords house. I know that it takes more than a person's wish and prayer for healing, and can only pray that mine along with all the others brings some comfort.

“ Dear Goeb family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Steven Goeb. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest? Mrs. Higgins

“ God brought Steve into our lives when his beautiful wife Wendy introduced our daughter Stacy to his twin brother Jeff. We have watched the Goeb family celebrate many happy, joyful moments, and felt their heartbreak every time they received bad news. We watched Steve's courageous battle with cancer, and saw him keep a positive attitude throughout his fight. He was an amazing man, and such an inspiration to us. He is a true hero, and we will miss his smile, wonderful sense of humor, and his love for his family and friends. We now share in this beautiful family's sorrow, with heaviness in our hearts. Another shining light gone too soon. We love you all, and Steve's legacy lives on in all of us whose lives he touched. We will never forget him. Jim, Kathy, Jeff, Stacy, Wendy, Andrew, Carson, and Sylvia- you have our love and prayers that you will find comfort knowing that Steve is finally home and at peace. We love you all.

“ Steve was such a great guy. We moved next door to Steve & Wendy a couple of years ago. As new home owners, every time we were struggling with some kind of home project or needed to borrow a tool, Steve was always there to help with a smile. Most of the time, he would be over to help before we could even ask. We look forward to watching beautiful Andrew and Carson grow up next door. Wendy, please do not hesitate to ask us when ever you need something. And in the spirit of Steve, we will try to be there to help before you can even ask. Love, Your Neighbors, Steve & Melanie
