“ Like I said in my comment section Steve was one of the most positive spirit I gave ever know. He had many talents among them his ability to bowl. If I remember he was the president of the bowling league I coached at Lakeview high school for 3yrs. What a great group of kids I had the opportunity to coach. His band also played at my wedding. He will be missed. Heaven has another angel. May God gently receive your soul and spirit.

“ I remember a Christmas party at your house probably 1979 or 1980..Michael Jacksons "I wanna rock with you" was on in the background..We were talking about the trumpet playing part in that song..So you went up stairs and brought your trumpet down and let me play with it...Ever since then when ever i here that song it reminds me of that day..Rest in peace Steve Love you..

The last thing Stitch said to me was "You taking good care of my Q-tips?" He was referring to my Mom (Marie Hididd) and Aunt Rose (Rosamond Hididd) who he affectionately called his "Q-Tip Aunties".

Growing up, Stitch was a soaring example for me of work ethic, just like his father, my dear Uncle Chuck, and his mother, my dear Aunt Mildred. Uncle Chuck would work all day at the tailor shop, then come home and work in his basement shop at the sewing machine until he fell asleep over it. Aunt Mildred would cook, bake, crochet, do ceramics and prepare gourmet food for her church until she literally couldn't even stand up. Stitch had the same work ethic, and I am grateful they were my role models.

He co-created three amazing daughters who also have this incredible work ethic. Stitch, I love you. Your bear hugs were one of a kind!

“Rosamond Hididd and Marie Hididd (Steve called us his "Q-tip Aunties")

Aunt Marie: A gentleman all the way. I have enjoyed many heartfelt chats, smiles, and special hugs on every occasion. Go with love on this journey too. God bless you.

*Love,
Q-tip (Aunt Marie)*

Aunt Rose: Steve's great personality made him a pleasure to be around. A good listener and teller of jokes. He was more like a younger brother than a nephew. Watching him succeed in whatever, made excitement for all of us, because he shared his progress. He will always be in my heart and prayers with lots of love.

*Love,
Q-tip (Aunt Rose)*

“ My favorite memory of you Stitch is when we were kids we used to go to your house on Saturdays and stay late into the night. You would always fix us pillows and blankets on the floor to watch tv while our parents visited. Any did I mention the snacks? You would walk me to the kitchen (well the pantry) and let me pick whatever I wanted. From there it just got better as we became adults (you way before me lol) and would get together for our family picnics and Christmas parties. All my memories of you are golden and I love you so much but knowing you are with Aunt Mildred and Uncle Chuck warms my heart. Love you cousin Stitch 🥰😊. Love 💕💕
