“ I have been in the medical field for many years. I try to maintain a professional personal relationship with my residents, however Steve was different he would make me smile every morning I came to work. He would call me a pain in the butt, and I would joke with him and tell him he was do for a beating, he would always reply you beat me good cause you dont leave marks. This was only a joke between us, I will miss him dearly. I am so very sorry for your loss.
