

Steven Thompson

Steven Paul Thompson, born on January 12th, 1961, passed away peacefully at his home on April 26th, 2020. Steven was born to Phyllis Hill (Ogden) and Gordon Thompson and raised by his dad Ronald Hill.

Steven had a fun life; he liked to have his cocktails growing up and would, on occasion, take a random road trip with his baby sister Susan. He also loved going to Lewiston with his brother Bobby. He was married in 1981 and gained a stepson, he and his wife added three more children before they divorced, and that is when he met the love of his life Kathy Thompson (Gizak).

Steven had a love for camping, the Detroit Tigers, and a love-hate relationship with the Detroit lions. He was a country singer, a star he would tell people, and he was a star to his family, he sure did shine when singing karaoke in the basement, if you got enough beers in him Steve could shine at the local taverns too.

Steve was a hard worker, he did not have your average career, but he always had a job, even though they were not easy, and he was only making enough to get by, he always provided for his family.

Steve was a funny guy, he liked to make people laugh, and he was good at it, dirty jokes for days. He was witty and could come up with a comeback instantly. He could tell a story better than anyone.

Steven's resume could say stand-up comedian to friends and family along with country karaoke singer, best farter I mean father ever, brother, uncle, best friend, and the coolest grandpa around. Many friends and family will miss Steven and his many Facebook post per day, gone too early, never forgotten, and loved forever.
