“ I could hardly believe it when I called mom and she told me about Sue passing away. I had just received my late but very noteworthy birthday card from Sue saying that she was quite happy where she was and enjoying the company of those around her. It's hard to believe a few days later she would be gone. We will all miss Sue's many and assorted cards and notes she would send out. Wish I could be there with everyone but I send my love and support to all of you. Denise & Anjel

“ As my son, Eric, wrote me today . . . "if there is a heaven, Sue will be there. She always tried to be kind." We will miss our friend who "always tried."
