“ While hearts are heavy few words are able to comfort you completely. So during this difficult time may fond memories and knowing God is near and cares for you bring peace and hope your way today. You have my deepest sympathy. Rev 21:4

Should have said unconditionally. Mom, it's been almost three months since you were taken home and Mom, it feels like it just happened. I cannot believe how lonely and empty I am without you. We miss you so much. I'm sure Yeb misses your calls, getting the look, getting told to shut up and most of all hearing you say I love you. Mom, I miss your warm hugs, kisses, laying beside you watching tv, doing mine and your Bible talks, etc..Mom, we miss YOU and everything about you. Mom, I'm really trying to be strong and the you would want me to be. I went to church last Sunday, and Pastor Craig said nice seeing you, I will see you next Sunday, not every Sunday. LOL you know Pastor Craig. Mom, all of us send our love. We miss you more than possible. I know God is with us, just as you are, watching, comforting, guiding and keeping us strong as we go through each passing day. Mom love you and enjoy paradise as you should. Give Dad, Jerry, Louis, Aunt Jane, Steven, my Grandpa Louis, Kevin, etc.....kisses and hugs. May everyone R.I.P. Until we meet again. Love, your two daughters and family.
