“ Sue touched many with her kindness. She was many things to many people. As a neighbor and to many children as a Cub Scout leader to my son's troop, she was a positive influence on those boys. When she first began her career as a teacher in Royal Oak, my daughter had her as a substitute teacher. Mrs. Abraham was, by far, her favorite. Know that we are all thinking of you at this time of loss.

“ Aunt Sure will be so missed. Our last weekend at the lake was incredibly special and it is a memory we will hold dear. She shared about her registered Little Library and insisted our girls pick a story. The girls picked the book, The Book Woman by Heather Henson. Sue told them it was a special one, one of the first she added to her little library. She sat with them on the sofa and engaged two wiggly Littles on a hot summer day, to be completely entranced by a story of a boy who hated to read! Amazing. Such a gift, talent, art and passion. Then she shared a bowl of special rocks with our youngest... She gave her a little bowl of water, on the sofa, so she could dip them in and watch the magic happen as they changed color. She has touched so many lives and had made an incredible impact. 💕
