“ Susan was a neighbor and friend, first to my Grandmother, and then to my Mother. On behalf of the Bennett family, I extend our condolences. I just spoke with my Mother and she broke into tears at the thought of not being able to visit with Susan again. My Mother loved Susan dearly and she will be missed.

“ Dear Fiore Family, I wanted to write and express my deepest condolences for your loss of Susan. Loosing someone we love is definitely one of the hardest things a human being can experience. Something that has always brought me comfort when facing the death of someone I love is the promise at Revelation 21:4, there it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Just imagine a time when all of your loved ones will once again be with you, and you will no longer have any reason to cry; that truly is a beautiful promise we can look forward to. I hope this message is able to give you a small amount of comfort at this trying time. Sincerely, Anastasia

“ Sue, when we first met you, oh what a sweet little bird you where. You where so nervous to meet your lost sisters and brother for the first time. But, you came in with that sweet smile and those timid eyes and we all fell in love instanly. When we came to visit, you would flutter around to make sure we where all fed and comfortable. Like so many we wish we could of lived closer to spend more time together. But your love for all of your family and friends either near or far away was so very strong. Your passion for those in DC this last few years brought many a smile to a lot of people. We will miss you. But our love for you will never die. Love you, Stella and Jerry
