“ Judy and George Hagan phoned today with the very sad news the Suzanne had passed away this past July. I am so sorry to hear this and that Maureen preceded Suzanne. Jim, I don't believe we ever met, but I loved your mother, father and Suzanne. They were very good to my sister Mary, and to me. Prayers and love to you and your family.

“ *Suzanne never met a stranger. She would find that thread that brought your lives together. It was a joy having her as our neighbor in Lexington. She often said that was her special place. She always felt close to Noel there. We could talk about anything, books, current events, gardening, the Tigers, the Lions and of course Lilly. The lead to I prefer cats and this was really Noel's dog. Every call ended with "all my love". Our dear friend, you are gone too soon and will be missed terribly. Until we meet again, all our love. “ Suzanne and Noel were great friends that I met in Seattle in 2003, Since then we partied, laughed and cried and generally had a hoot in New York, Florida and Detroit, Suzanne has always been such a decent, kind, loving person, Guttled to hear off her passing, All I can say is she is with her parents and Noel again, May she Rest In Peace 🍀💚

“ I met Suzanne when we moved to our home on Birwood, Detroit in 1960. Suzanne and I became fast friends. We lost contact when the Seitzs moved to Southfield, MI. We got back together when Suzanne came to my mother's funeral in February, 2018. We were only able to get together for lunch about five times before the covid epidemic started. The few lunch dates we were able to squeeze out since getting back together were always at least three hours long and were filled with reminesing about our grade school days at Epiphany Catholic School! I will miss you, Suzanne. We had so many memories yet to be reminded about. RIP, my friend.

“ Suzanne and I only recently got to know each other, though she immediately made me feel like we were old friends. Her wit, charm, intelligence and generosity came clearly through. She will be sorely missed!

“ Suzanne has been a great friend to us for such a long time. We have many great memories of time spent with Suzanne and with Noel on our annual visits to Royal Oak from Ireland. We will remember Suzanne for her fun, wisdom and enduring friendship. Sadly missed by her friends from Ireland John, Sharon & Matthew Gunn
