“ Death of a loved one is one of the most hurting experience for humans. Our loving heavenly Father created us to live forever. Adam disobeyed in the Garden of Eden and for his disobedience, the penalty was death. Being one of Adam's descendants, Mrs. Brinker also suffered that penalty. However, Jehovah didn't leave us in that dying state. John 3:16 states that he "sent his only begotten son" to the earth to offer a sacrifice for us. At Acts 17:31, Jesus sacrifice "furnished a guarantee" that there will be a resurrection. There's more: Revelation 21:4 states "death will be no more". So, you have the hope of welcoming back Mrs. Brinker to an earth restored to paradise conditions. jw.org has more on this.
