“ So many fond memories of Aunt Sylvia. As the priest said, she really did embrace life. When I think of her I think of purple violets, beanies, cute sweatshirts, her dollhouse, Jello with fruit in it, Christmas lights left up until July and then what the heck it's half way to Christmas just leave them up, t-shirts for the guys at Christmas, BB&B for the girls, puzzles, all the lovely afghans she made, her photo memory books, her Christmas carolers on the porch with the homemade hats, dancing lessons with Uncle John and Aunt Sylvia, always sending my kids a birthday card with $5 and a dollar each to the other non-birthday kids with a yellow sticky note saying who got what, the glitter in the cards that we took to opening over the trash!

But mostly her love of her family and Uncle John. She was unwavering. I will always be most grateful for Sylvia & John including us in Christmas Eve back when our kids were little and family was scarce.

Sylvia you were a gem or as Uncle John always said, "a doll" and forever in my heart.

“ Dear Chris & Marsha and the Venet Family,
You and all your family are very much in our thoughts and prayers
since we heard of Sylvia’s passing away.

We will celebrate her memory in our hearts, and wish her peace in the heavens above dancing with John!

With all our love,
- Jonn & Faye Shamoun

“ Though our family was never fortunate to really get to know this beautiful woman, we have been blessed with the love, kindness, and pure beauty that she instilled in her wonderful daughter Julie!
Our love, thoughts, and prayers to all that knew and loved Sylvia!

Warmly,
The Smith Family ❤️

“ Our dear neighbors and friends since childhood .
Sylvia, John, Chris, Gary , Julie and Rick .
Sylvia was a cherished member of the Ursuline Gang . In a time when all the kids on Ursuline were treated as if they were their neighbors children . Sylvia always kept her eye on what we were all up to.
She saw a lot from that upstairs window!
I can attest to that one night In the wee hours I decided I would roll moms car down the driveway , pick up Suzie Ferris and go for a joy ride ... I didn't have my license yet ... Sylvia saw me from the upstairs window ... yelled out to put moms car back and go to bed !
She talked with me the next day and made me promise not to try it again ... she never told mom !
I remember spying in the window of Greenwood Elementary to watch Sylvia and John teach dance classes. Sylvia and John are dancing again!
My love to you Sylvia and John and May you dance for eternity .
Xoxo
