“ We had such great times when we were younger in the old neighborhood. I practically lived at your house as Madonna and I were best friends. You were like a big sister to me and the three of us had so much fun singing, dancing and discussing boys! 😊 Remember "when your hair shines you shine...." such silly, fun times. Rides up North to Gaylord to your Grandparents house, and going deer shining...the list goes on and on. Rest in peace with your Dad, my big sister, and thank you for being so sweet and helping to make my childhood so memorable.

“ Very sad to hear of Teresa’s passing. Such a kind/caring person. I’ll always remember her by her thoughtfulness towards my daughter & how she made it a special point to come down to the sidewalk to give her a special bag of candy and talk to her about her costume every Halloween when she was younger. She’ll be missed in our neighborhood, that’s for sure. Prayers to John and the rest of her family.

“ I am so saddened & broken hearted at Teresa's loss. My heart goes out to John, Jennifer & her whole family.

Teresa & I shared so much together. We were young together, in laws together, helped each other raise out children together. She was Godmother to my daughter, & my late husband Terry was Godfather to Jennifer. We compared & laughed at the quirks our children inherited and babysat for each other.

She loved Jennifer, John Czulinski & her family to no end. She was one of the hardest workers I have ever known but was never too tired to offer to lend a hand. She had a beautiful soul, & a most generous heart.

You were one of a kind Teresa, may you rest in peace. You will be missed. Go find Terry & your dad in heaven, & have a laugh with them. Love Joyce Green
