Free At Last

Little brother, you're going home soon
Your angel will take you swiftly
To Jesus and Father God
You will experience life like you never dreamed of
In your new Home in Heaven

Little brother, in has been a long battle for you
Many of the choice made
Caused life to be so difficult
Still there were times of happiness

Little brother, the greatest decision you ever made
Was to receive Jesus your Savior
All Heaven rejoiced with our family
When you came back to Father God
Through Jesus Who gave His life for you

Little brother, we wept with you when you were hurt
We prayed for you many years
Now you will be raised in glory
To know the love you so desperately longed for
The love we all need and want
Is in Daddy God, Jesus, and Holy Spirit

Little brother, though we are sad for what you went through
And for this last battle you now face
I know that Jesus is with you
And you know it, too
He is so close...so near
I have no doubt you are seeing Him now

Little brother, though there is sorrow to see you go
There is also joy...for you
Joy in knowing the greatest life you are about to enter
That you will have no more pain, sickness, surgery, addiction
Only love, peace, joy, health, abundant life and fun

Little brother Ted, we so love you...we love you so much
Through all the battles, you still were good to people
You still had love through all the wounding

Ted, the battle is almost over
Rest in Jesus' arms

My little brother Ted
We will see you again
And we'll be together forever
Be at peace, Ted...peace
You will be Home soon
And it will all be worth it
We love you, Ted
Glory to God for His unconditional love!

“ I don't have a lot of memories of Uncle Ted but what I do remember is his great smile and his wonderful laugh. I can still hear it to this this day. He will be missed by his family.
Always in our hearts!

“ Ted and I were only four years apart in age, and we were close in our younger years. When we were older, we didn't keep in touch as often, but when we did see each other or call, there was still a close connection knowing that we were there for each other. The bond of family is strong, and I knew that he loved his family, and he knew that we loved him.
Even though I will miss him, it gives me great comfort in knowing that Ted is enjoying his wonderful new life in Heaven. Our God is so faithful. Thank You, Jesus!

“ My brother Ted lived with me for approx. 10 yrs. and we got to reconnect. Our lives had changed a lot. I was a lot older, got married and moved away. It was great to be able to share what went on in our lives. I'm very thankful for these last years that he lived with me. Ted suffered a lot the last 2 yrs. being in and out of the hospital's and in constant pain. He's pain free now and in peace.

“ There was a time when I was living at home and had just gotten discharged from the army and started my tool and die apprenticeship. I was working 58 hours a week and not use to it so when I got home I just wanted some peace and quiet. Ted was only about nine years old at that time and would not let it happen. I remember getting so mad at Ted that I picked him up and threw him on the couch then called my buddies up who wanted me to move in with them to help with the rent and said when can I move in.

It was not always like that as we got older I could see that Ted was looking up to Jerry and I so I tried to set a good example for Ted. I all ready miss Ted but I know that I will see Him again because I believe Ted is in Heaven and that is where I am going also
