“ Theresa had a way with children. She always knew how to engage them in an authentic and welcoming way. We always appreciated how she related to our daughter when Seth and our Alexandra played together as children. We are happy to know that she had quality time with her beautiful granddaughter. Our condolences to the entire extended family. May her memory be a blessing.

“ I remember the first time we met was when Seth and Bridget graduated with their MBAs at University of Iowa. She came over to introduce herself to me and that's when we realized that both of us were named Theresa (with the h). Then met again at Bridget and Seth's wedding. I'm so glad that she got to spend time with Stella back in September. The pictures that I've seen from that visit are precious.
