“ Theresa was like a sister to me. We became friends at 15 and even though we hadn't seen each other in a while the love was always there. When we talked it was like no time had passed, that's how Theresa was. She was a devoted friend and I miss her dearly. We always had a plan to get sportsters and ride cross country...I'm hoping we get to do that on the other side. RIP my sister.

“ Worked many years with Figg, I know how much he loved her and cared for her and that she is now pain free. She'll be the Angel to look after Figg, Nikki and her grands everyday. Rest in peace and prayers for the family.

“ There are too many adventures we had together, not only as my sister, but as a mom who looked out for her cub as well. We always watched out for each other in a sea of people. Concerts, motorcycle swap meets, Stoney Creek park , and shopping mall clothes racks. I once hid in the window display at a department store and watched as she and my mom frantically looked for me. Yes I thought it was just hide and seek! But dragging me by my hair was becoming a norm.lol. I remember so many good times together. But some how, there was always a funny pee story. Either she had me watch a bathroom door for her or block the view in a concert parking lot. One time I got busted peeing on a fence, she stood by and pointed and laughed as I tried to quickly "leave the scene of the crime". My sister was always an adventurer who loved to be around people. As a girl she'd run around playing Batman, no girl stuff. Later her thrills were motorcycles, camping with bonfires, and rescuing any animal critter she could. Please feel free to share your memories, involving pee or not, so that the memory of this special soul will not go forgotten.
