“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ My cousin Tom was also my godfather, and I have some wonderful memories of him as a little girl, as well as through the years at family get-togethers. God bless him - he had a great sense of humor and always a twinkle in his eye! I'm sure he will be missed by his family greatly. My sister Holly and I share in these remembrances of him and would like to say God bless you to you all.
