

Thomas "Tom" John Baranski

May 26, 1941 - July 22, 2023

Thomas (Tom) John Baranski, 82, passed away in the afternoon of July 22, 2023.

Tom was born on May 26, 1941 to John and Margaret (Tomkiewicz) Baranski in Detroit, MI. He attended St. Florian High School in Hamtramck, was active in many sports, and graduated in 1959. Tom served in the US Army and was honorably discharged in (August 1963).

Throughout his entire life Tom has been active in sports, most notably as a bowler or team sponsor for well over 70 years. In addition, Tom coached many youth teams at the grade school level and was an active member of the Catholic Youth Organization. Tom was also an avid fan of the Detroit sport teams, but refused to watch the Tigers when they are losing.

Professionally, after several career changes Tom found his footing as an Independent Insurance Agency, being a business owner for 40 years.

Surviving are his wife of 52 years, Joan and son Robert (Ana) Lossman, nephews Garry Czajkowski, and Larry (Tammi) Czajkowski, grandchild Kevin Lossman (Amanda), Jason Mitchell, Robert (Laina) Mitchell and great grandchildren Avery Lossman and Kaylee Lossman.

Tom was preceded in death by his children Edward and Ronald Lossman, his parents John and Margaret, sister Lorraine, and his beloved pet Pepper.

Tom will be missed by his family and many friends. Tom enjoyed talking to anyone and everyone he met!

“ Tom was my CYO coach back in 1972 at St Hyacinth. We took the league championship that year. He knew his baseball. After that we remained friends for all these years. You would get on the phone with him and the conversation would never stop. Always fun to talk to. Sorry you lost your husband and friend Joan. Mike & Dawn L
