“ Although I did not personally spend much time with my uncle Tom, he will be missed. I pray that things will be easy for his family who was close to him especially his children! When my father - Steve Bellware, Tom's brother died back in 1989 I had just turned 12 so I understand the burdon it puts on the children. I pray that all will be able deal with the grief in a positive way. Love you all - Karen Bellware

“ I remember Tom as always cracking jokes and smiling. Trudy, I know it is agonizing to lose your last son. My mom lost 2 already and has one left. Nikki, I know you will miss your dad. It's sad that Harry will grow up without knowing him. I often think about how much Steve would have enjoyed all of his grandchildren. I know how much my girls miss Steve and it is sad that Thomas will have to live with that same pain.
