“ As a 16 year member of the Elks, I can say Tom was a very welcoming member at the Elks and VFW royal oak! I swear, he seemed to always be the exhausted ruler. LOL. His wife Barb was also a huge part of the elks as well! As a former trustee, we spent many hours together. We shared many memories and will never forget Tom and Barb EVER! Bless you both, RIP Tom, I know your angel and wife (Barb) was waiting to greet you! Love you both! RIP ❤️

“ Tom was such a good man even with all his trash talk. But to have a real conversation with him he just showed love for everyone. I got a chance to learn a lot about his life a few times and was mesmerized by how he loved his wife and kids. He may have been a little bit hardheaded but the way he showed himself to the people he cared about was unreal. As a much younger man to get a hug and kiss on the cheeks from someone who just wants the best for everyone is just incredible. I just would love to be able to shake his hand again. Let him know I appreciate the knowledge and also the banter that affected my life. Thank you Tom.
