“ May the Barr family find comfort in God's loving invitation to "throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you" 1 Peter 5;7 and that he is "near to those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." It is God's desire that you see Tom again in very near future, right here on earth under peaceful conditions where death will be no more. Please read God's promises at John 5;28,29; Psalm 37;29 and Rev. 21;3,4. Please rest your hope in these promises during this difficult time. Take care,

“ To Tom, Mike and Sheila, I am very sorry for your loss. I know how hard it is to lose a brother too early in life. To Tommy, I will always remember the time we spent together as kids; fishing in Caseville, hanging out at Aunt Mary's on the weekends and playing Euchre at the christmas parties. I regret they we were unable to spend more time together as adults. I will miss you.

“ Tom will be remembered by me as a sweet and thoughtful man. Tom always put a smile on my face...it was like he would not be happy until that smile was there. He will remain a bright and shining star, a person who I felt lucky to know. Tom showed me that facing true hardship can be done with dignity and a smile. Heaven is a much better place today. Missing you Tom, take care up there. Fondly, Patti

“ To Tom, Mike and Sheila, I was sorry to hear about the loss of your son and brother. My son, Brian, graduated with Tom and had seen him at the Class of '81's reunion in October. Tom shared with Brian the facts about his illness, and it was very disturbing to see such a young person with his ailments. We did not expect this to be this soon. I also remember all the Barr children as they were students at Goodrich High School where I was the librarian. I only remember that they were such nice young people. Tom will be sadly missed. Mrs. Schollar and I had planned to come down for visitation or the funeral to express our condolences in person, but previous plans had already been made. We want you to know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Fondly, Joan Turner

“ I want to send my condolences to all of you in the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible holds out a real hope for our loved ones that we lose in death. God is stronger than our enemy death and he promise to bring it to nothing. 1Corinthians 15:26 "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God promises that our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death have the hope of living again. Isaiah 26:19b "For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop in birth." What a comforting hope we have to see our loved ones again!
Sincerely, India

“ Tommy was always such a sweet guy, not just in high school but at the last two reunions. At our most recent reunion he was more interested in asking how everyone else was doing than for us to ask how he was feeling. Very, very courageous. I will remember his sense of humor and his "cat ate the canary" grin he would flash, it could melt your heart. Our thoughts and prayers are with him in eternity and to those of you left behind to mourn. May our Heavenly Father bless you in the coming days with the comfort of Tom's memories.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you - I had the privledge of spending some time with Tom at our class reunion. His courage and strength were amazing. We were pretty good friends our senior year at Goodrich High, and I like to remember him like I knew him then.
