“ Lynn, my condolences on Tom's passing. I didn't get a chance to talk to you yesterday at the memorial service as the place was so packed with people. Even though I didn't get the chance to know Tom as well as I could or should have over the decades, I always liked him and admired him for his tenacious courage in facing his illness with dignity and grace. I prayed for him daily throughout his challenges. He will be missed, but of course, as Pastor Alex pointed out, we will reunite with him someday. Your and your family will remain in my prayers.

“ Tom cared so deeply for people that it hurt sometimes, but that is what caused him to be such a great prayer warrior. He prayed people through many hard times in their life. He was a witness for Christ everywhere he went no matter what he was going through. He loved his family passionately. Just a few of the many things I loved about him. He was blessed to be his friend and prayer partner. I will miss him greatly but I'm thankful he's no longer in pain and he's with His Lord and his son.

“ Tom was part of a group of guys, all members of lambda Sigma Delta fraternity at Macomb Community College, more than 45 years ago.. We all had some wonderful and memorable times together, and Tom was a major part of it As a group we were only together for a short time. Later on, We all took different paths in life, and eventually lost touch with one another. But, no matter where we went, we all took a little of each other everywhere.. It was good to eventually find Tom after all those years, and reconnect, even if it was just though sharing emails.. I hope he enjoyed some of the old stories and pictures we shared in our emails to each other.. Rest in Peace brother Tom

“ Regardless of how Tom was feeling, whenever we spoke he always asked how I was. Tom practiced thinking of others.

“ Thomas was a very important patient to me=he was a very wonderful man and I was privileged to be his primary day nurse. Thomas was always positive in his endeavors and worked hard in therapy! I was blessed to have him as a patient and will treasure my memories of being able to provide care for him. he was a wonderful man with an awesome family and I will always treasure my memories of him. to his wife lynn and son-I thought of Thomas as a big brother and will always be grateful for the time I took care of him. my heartfelt prayers to you his family in your loss-he was a great man-lauri

“ We will miss Tom tremendously. Tom had a big heart and was concerned for all. He was a great prayer warrior as well. When Jim was working out of state for awhile Tom would always call our family and ask how we were doing and if we needed anything. He definitely demonstrated Christ in his life and was a blessing to all who met and knew him. We love you Tom dear brother.

“ Tom was a man after God's own heart. He prayed constantly for people and had a giving and encouraging heart. From his earliest days as a Christian he sought to share The Good News of Jesus Christ with people. His Missionary days were not long but fruitful. May Jesus give Peace and Comfort to Lynn his faithful wife and their sons.

“ who are we going to go to now when we need prayer??? our great prayer warrior is gone. Tom was always such a kindred spirit. someone to "speak into your life". we remember praying for you all when you were in the Phillipines. seeing Tom working at the produce department at the grocery store. eating "panset"; the receipe from his Phillipines. you could always tell him anything and everything , in confidence, and he always truly cared. i will never forget that even though he didn't get out and about much, he came to my 60th birthday party. i love you , Lynn, Tom jr., and Matt, and we will be praying for you all . Tom is with Andrew now, and they are waiting for us, helping the Lord to prepare a place. with many tears, Lynne and Tony Itria
