

Thomas Basil Ferber

July 12, 1958 - March 8, 2020

Thomas Basil Ferber Sr., age 61, of Royal Oak, passed away March 8, 2020. Thomas owned and operated "The Train Center Hobbies" in Birmingham and Royal Oak for twenty years. He was also a skilled carpenter and craftsman. In his spare time, Thomas enjoyed gardening and particularly took pride in the tomatoes he grew. He always cherished any opportunity to spend time with family and friends.

Please join us to remember Tom on Saturday, March 14th at the Fraternal Order of Eagles (174 Bowers St., Clawson) between 2 and 6 pm.

Thomas was the loving father of Thomas (Megan) Ferber Jr., Quinlan Ferber, and Caitlin Ferber. Dear son of Irene Ferber and the late George Ferber. Dear brother of the late Devon Miller and brother-in-law of Scott Miller. Thomas is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Please share a memory on the Tribute Wall at www.SullivanFuneralDirectors.com.

“ When I think of Tom Ferber I think kindness. What a dear friend, and we shared so many great times together growing up. We always called each other by our middle names—with that said, Basil, Rest In Peace my friend.

My thoughts and prayers are with his family, and many friends.

Love,

Betsy Emma Butters-Williams
