“ Tom was an inspiration to all of us in the way he handled the hardships of his life. Always kind to others and appreciative to those who cared for him, he left only friends behind. Nurses at the hospice were amazed at his ability to withstand the ravages of his incurable cancer without acknowledging pain or bitterness. All who dealt with him daily during this time received more inspiration and comfort than they gave. Tom generously left all of the contents of his apartment, including clothing, furniture, TV, etc to be distributed by the social service director to the many needed handicapped people at Northgate Apartments. He truly deserves to rest in peace. Darryl & Judith Hees Herman
