“ I knew Tommy Hoad since kindergarten in Highland Park, Michigan, and we were classmates and great buddies through fifth grade when his family moved away. He was the warmest, funniest and most delightful kid ever! I really loved having him in my life during those years.

As many of you must know, he had in incredibly infectious laugh, and sometimes we got in trouble because once we got started, neither of us could stop. Once, in fifth grade, we fell into a laughing jag that got so out of control that the teacher sent me out to the hall. I didn't like being disciplined, but it was well worth it!

Rest In Peace, Tom. I feel privileged to have known you.

Much love, Rob McCormick
