

Thomas J. Murphy, Sr.

July 24, 1921 - June 17, 2006

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Thomas J. Murphy, Sr.

March 25, 2023 at 11:03 AM

“ Our family will truly miss Uncle Tom - he was wonderful and always made you feel welcome! I am glad my husband Joe; our son Brian and i were able to visit with Uncle Tom and Aunt Betty in Sun City a few times last year - we enjoyed their company very much. I know Uncle Tom is in a good place right now - but we will sure miss his "smiling Irish eyes"!

Laurie Baranek - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JT

“ We our deepest sympathies and heartfelt love. I have known Mr. Murphy, he wanted me to call him Tom for the last 30 years but I only complied a couple of times, all my life. Our family was a mirror image of the Murphy clan in many ways. I always looked forward to the gatherings, especially because Maureen and Erin, roughly my age, were cool and pretty. We even vacationed on Lake Huron in 1963; I know the date because last weekend during a visit to Ann's for her 25th anniversary I saw a picture -- both events were memorable. Mr. Murphy wrote me my first letter of reference for a job; I have never forgotten the special things he said and the way he said them. We have followed the fortunes of the Murphy's through the years -- for me Erin's move East, Maureen's to Australia and beyond, and for the other children I'm sure they could relate similar rememberances. With Mary, my wife of 25 years, Maureen 24, Catherine 23 and Tara 20 we stayed with Tom and Betty a couple of years ago -- what a nice visit. At that time Tom talked of Kathleen and Betty as the two most beautiful women in the world!! He had a way about him that I will miss. With Love, Joe

Joe Jackson for Kathleen, Ann, Jim, Mary, Paul, Marge, Tom - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

EK

“ Hello everyone, I was Tom's youngest niece and will miss him dearly. I always loved seeing him and sometimes ponder on how different he and my father were. Uncle Tom is an extrovert and average height, whereas my father is an introvert and is tall, but they both shared the same trait - importance of family values. He will be dearly missed by all of us and his memory will live on. Love, Erin Murphy Kane

Erin Kane - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM