“ Belated condolence. I was on Tom's staff at Mutual of Detroit from the late 70s until he was promoted to District #9 manager. During our time we won trips together. After his promotion I'd visit him in the Dearborn office. In the summer mu District #2 would meet and play baseball with his #9. I'd would leave Mutual of Detroit in the late 80s.

The last time I saw Tom was at our former District # 2 manager Lee DeNike's funeral. By that time had been promoted to state. He was great guy, may he rest in peace.
