“ Dear Arlen and family, I was surprised and sadden to hear of Tom's death. The photo of him in the obituary is just how I picture him in my mind when ever I think of him smiling and happy. Dick and I had a lot of fun with you both. Although we didn't see each other often we had great memories. I loved the words in the remembrance card they are very comforting. Marilyn Edmunds

“ Uncle Tom - your boundless energy and contagious laughter will ring forever in our hearts. We can't thank you enough for all that love and strength that you've shown us. Dad - and heaven - needed a drummer, so play on, laugh on, catch that trophy snook, and rest in God's peace. We love you.

“ Uncle Tom, I will miss your contagious laugh, your unstoppable enthusiasm for everything from baiting a fishing hook to flipping a burger on a grill. You brought smiles, laughter and love to everyone and everywhere you went. Wherever heaven is, it's more fun now that you're there. And since you'll be joining forces with my Dad, there's sure to be all kinds of trouble brewing. Take care of each other. I love and miss you both so very much.
