“ Uncle Tom lived a full and purposeful life, rose to prominent positions in his career, and raised a family that followed his examples. A long and wonderful life, and one deserving respect and gratitude. No doubt he is walking 18 somewhere special.

“ I remember his sweet smile, sunny disposition and his enjoyment of that wonderful pipe of his. He was dad's youngest brother and now they will see each other again in heaven. Although I may not remember him as well as other family members, he will always hold a fond memory in my heart and I will miss him.

“ I'm sure that he's up there in heaven getting a foursome together to tee off soon. Your dad grandpa, great grandpa was a true man of his generation--hard working, always a gentleman, devoted church member, & proud family man. It was a privilege to know him. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ To The Scott Family,It saddens me to read about Thomas's passing. Something that helped me when mygrandfather died was the hope found in the bible. It assures us God is near tothose that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. Wered about this at Psalm 34:18. More than anything else, a relationship withGod can help you to cope with the death of someone you love. I hope you findcomfort in these words.
