“ Hi Ellen, I was just looking some things up on the Internet and came across your message. Thanks so much for your kind thoughts. It is a struggle that I face every day. I have thought of you often through the years and wondered how your life has been. Becky is gone now too. Actually only one sister remaining. I hope life has been good to you and your family. Wishing you the best,Bobbie

“ Dear Bobby - I know it's been a very long time, but just felt I needed to express my sympathy in the loss of your son, which I know is very difficult, especially after just losing your brother last week. I've just recently been getting the death notices from the Detroit Newspaper, & was very surprised to see both, but wanted to send my condolences. If you ever want to write, I've included my email address, & pray that God will give all the family comfort during this difficult time. Your old high school friend, M. Ellen Cary

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your beloved Thomas. Although your hearts must be in great pain at this time, I pray that you will find the strength and comfort your hearts need to endure this sad loss. I have found the Scriptural thought at John 11:25 comforting during such times, where our Lord Jesus Christ promises: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Also, Isaiah 25:8 promises that the time will soon come when God "will swallow up death forever." May such loving promises give you hope and sustain your family in the challenging days ahead.
