“ Sure shared some great laughs and stories on the assembly line while working with Tigh ... his imprint will forever be with us. The love for his family and friends, especially his daughter, shined brightly; we could always tell Madison was his lucky charm. My heart is with those he loved most and I hope peace walks with you on this path.

When I was at my grandmother's house with Daddy, I knew that he was troubled with stuff. . . When he got a text from Jessica that one day, he got a little irritated with her, because she didn't like the fact that he went to Grandma's house without her. And I believe this was when he was clean off the drugs and alcohol.
