“ Tim, Just sitting here trying to figure out how to go on without you in my life! I miss you so much. Regret so much that we never got 'legally' married! I know in our hearts we were. We had SO many plans for our future. I found our 'bucket list' of all the places we planned to visit together. We were only 2 years into your 4 year plan for the house. I think about the plans for the deck you were working on. And how just days before we had talked about how excited we were for next spring to come so we could work on the yard together. Thank you for being such a great 'dad' to my daughters. So wish you could have seen Kristin and Jeff get married! Can't imagine you not sitting by my side for that. Thank you for sharing your family and beautiful grandchildren with me. They have been so wonderful and supportive to me. My life and the lives of all your touched will never be the same. I remember the very moment I fell in love with you in Hamlin Pub - when all you could do was talk about your daughters. I know they made you so happy and proud. Please watch over all of us. Love you, xoxox Cheryl

“ My thought are with my family on the day of my cousins funeral it made me recall the past
Tim and I where cousins one year apart growing up I have fond memory's as youngsters having sleep overs at his house we spent hours setting up army men in his basement then braking out the big red rubber bands to knock then down little did I know that skill came in handy in the drafting world
Family canoe trips it was me and Tim
Terrorizing our other cousins with a sneak attack on the river

As we had our own family's we often helped each other from time to time
He could call me for a hand and I could call him for that I am always great full

I had watched him succeed in the drafting world and later decided to join the field although I was never blessed to work with him I run into people who have everyone I have talked to always said he was a freak nobody faster and as good as him

For the last couple of years we have had a tubing trip down the manistee river trying to rekindle our family trips of the past often sitting at the campfire just Tim and I talked about our family's worries pride all the above
These are times I will always cherish

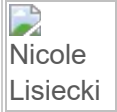

Thank you tim for being my friend

Thank you so much for sharing this. I sometimes wondered what my dad was like at work, he was always so laid back at home. If he had a bad day, you'd never know it.

I love you SO much Dad, I'm having such a hard time. I love you SO much, I DON'T understand, I NEVER will. I long for your hug, your laugh, your presence. Aubrey understands, but at the same time she doesn't. It's VERY hard. She is going to miss you SO SO much papa Tim. She absolutely ADORES you. I have wanted to call you so many times because you are the BACKBONE, you are the center, we are all radius to you. I miss you so much, my heart hurts, it is COMPLETELY broken. I know you would NEVER break my heart, that's how I know it wasn't YOUR time. I love you with EVERY fiber of my being, my WHOLE heart and soul. Tooness.

“ I remember his kindness. He gave his room to Ted and I when we first moved to Michigan. His Teasing! Oh Boy! I would turn on the TV real early in the morning and do some aerobic exercises that were on. He would come down the stairs and actually sit and watch me. And would tease me with this certain smile. And off to work he would go. He sure did like to tease and egg people on...
