“ Memories- I remember him pitching to me, all the way from underhand and a big red plastic bat, by the end of little league it was plastic golf ball and a broom stick. - Going fishing with my dad he would wake me up early and we would spend the day on the lake, sometimes i got to drive. -I remember the smiles on both of our faces as we raced go carts. -Teaching my how to drive, ride a bike, throw a football, how to deal with grief and joy, and teaching me how to be a good husband and father.
