“ I am so very sorry for your loss. To see a loved one suffering is hard, but losing a loved one is even harder and no one is ever prepared for the passing of one so young. I hope that you can take comfort in the hope found in the scriptures at John 5:28, 29 and Rev. 21:3, 4 knowing that God always keeps his promises.

“ Sandy, Though words can probably not begin to heal the hole that is now in your lives, know that Timmy is looking over you all and his spirit will remain. He was an incredible man and will continue to live through your beautiful children and all of your endless memories. Timmy was in unbelievable friend to me. We kept in good contact throughout the years and he always inspired me in so many ways. I will miss his texts and emails. If you should need anything, please do not hesitate to ask. My thoughts remain with you and your beautiful family during this tragic time which no one should endure. God bless,Dee

“ My thoughts are with Sandy, the children and both families. A good guy was taken too soon. I truly believe that as long as a person stays part of your life through a memory of good times or a past story, they will always be with you. Stay strong.

“ Sandy, Tim reminded me so much of Keith. They were both strong men who fought hard for more time with their families. I know how difficult this is for you and my heart goes out to you and Caitlin and Connor. But I know deep down that they were called so soon for a reason. Tim's strength and perserverance reminds us all how precious life and time can be.

“ My deepest sympathy to Sandy, Connor, Caitlin, and the entire McDonough family. Although I wasn't able to spend a great deal of time with Tim throughout the years, every moment I did was with great pleasure. Tim not only made me laugh, he showed a sincere interest in my life and music. And that meant a great deal to me. I'm going to really miss him, and our many conversations, and emails about all things MacGowan and The Pogues.

“ Offering my deepest sympathy, condolences, and prayers to Tim's family, and the entire McDonough family. I have many great memories of growing up in the neighborhood with Tim and his brothers; pick up games of baseball, football, and basketball at the playground or someone's house. Those times are priceless, and I'm glad to have been a part of it.

“ Tim was one of the nicest guys and hardest workers around. He always had a kind word or two, a great sense of humor and he spoke to everyone who came into his path. It was an honor to work with Tim. Those of us at Metro will remember him warmly.

“ Having spent the good part of my formative years with Timothy, I can honestly say that I could not have asked for a better friend. I have too many fond memories to mention here. I was able to experience some of Tim's character formation. That character has certainly been refined over the years and ultimately his true courage was shown in his "trial under fire." I will miss you buddy but will cherish the memories and relish the thought that your pain has ended and you are home in glory. Your courage has certainly left a lasting example for Sandy and the kids to emulate. 2 Timothy 4:7-8 "I have fought the good fight. I have finished the race. I have kept the faith".

“ Thank you for all the memories Tim. Always a smile, an "insightful" observation or a comment of encouragement as we ran in High School. I'm so glad we had time to catch up at the reunion. Peace to you, my friend, and to those you've left behind. You were a good man.
