“ Joni, Growing up together, your mother was also a mother to me. She was a great lady! One thing I will never forget about her is her strength. As a little girl, I remember how I tried to pedal her bicycle once. I could not even get it to move an inch! Do you remember that? The strength that she used to ride that thing symbolized her strength in life. You're my friend forever, All of my love to you and your family, Sherry
