“ Dear Vic, I cannot tell you how sorry I am to hear of your grievous loss. Toni was a fine woman ... and though seldom in her company I was always impressed with her warmth, honesty, and generosity. And, regrettably, with the passage of such irreplaceable people, the world becomes a little tougher, a a little more unfriendly. But, Vic, please take solace in the knowledge that good people like Toni are surely destined for a far nicer place! Sincerely ... Ed Anderson

“ I will never forget Aunt Toni and what a wonderful model of unselfish public service and volunteerism she committed to her community. Also, I will always remember the relationship she shared with her husband Uncle Vic and how much he adored her.
