

Tracy Henbury

August 26, 1960 - June 6, 2023

It is with deep sorrow and much love that we mourn the passing of Tracy Waggener-Henbury, 62, who passed away peacefully with her loving family by her side, at home in West Bloomfield on June 6th, 2023. Tracy was born in Royal Oak, Michigan to Dorothy Ann Peterson and the late William Horace Waggener on August 26th, 1960.

Tracy, the most loving and devoted wife, mother, sister, and grandmother is survived by her husband of nearly 33 years, Nicholas; daughters, Jessica and Alexys; sons, Jesse, Jacob, and Justyn; sisters, Lee Ann, and Terri; brothers, Billy, Mark, and Jamie; grandsons, Sabastian, Bowie, and Ace; granddaughters London, India, Reese, and Fiona; and her faithful dogs, Lucas and Joey.

Tracy was an incredible human being, a strong influential woman who loved her family and friends deeply. Being a mother and a grandmother overflowed her heart with joy. She was never one to recognize her own beauty, but walked with elegance and grace. She became a natural caregiver at a young age and had an undying passion for helping others. A proud business owner with a superhuman work ethic, who cared for her staff and clients like family, and provided opportunities to those who needed them most. She believed in people, saw the good in people, and spread continuous joy to everyone around her. She lived her life with purpose, had the gift of gab, and was always just a phone call away, no matter the time of day. Tracy had a unique ability to bring people together and would throw parties that were often talked about years later. She was a remarkable cook who enjoyed preparing meals for her family and friends, especially over the holidays. Tracy left this world too soon, she never gave up the fight, and her legacy will live on in all of us. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends, but never forgotten.

“ My dear aunt Tracy... I am thankful for the privilege I was given of knowing you and having such an amazing aunt in my life for the 37 years I've been on this earth, and sadly it was not nearly long enough.

Words alone will never be able to express what a wonderful person she was. Aunt Tracy was more than just an aunt to me. She was a role model, a mentor, and from as far back as I can possibly remember - she always had a way of captivating everyone around her with her infectious smile and her warm, caring nature. Her spirit was undeniably magnetic, drawing people in and making them feel loved and valued.

I often found myself looking up to aunt Tracy, admiring her strength and resilience. The battle she has fought over the last few years, many of us would have given up long ago. She had so much to live for. So much drive, and the fight in her was indestructible. She faced life's challenges with relentless courage, never allowing setbacks to define her or slow her down. Through every obstacle, she stood tall, inspiring all of us with her determination to overcome each and every adversity that came her way. Her unwavering strength served as a beacon of hope, reminding me that even in the darkest of times, there is always a light to guide us all forward.

I saw aunt Tracy as the glue that held our wonderful family together. She had an incredible ability to bring people closer, to bridge gaps, and to create a sense of unity among us all. I will forever remember the Hawaii Luaus she would throw at her house over the years, making our family gatherings so special. She had a unique way of making each and every one of us feel special, reminding us of the importance of family and the bonds that tie us together. She went out of her way to always go above and beyond, and life will never be the same without her.

Her kindness, her strength, and her tireless love will forever live on in my heart. And while we may not be able to see her physically, her presence will be felt in the memories we cherish, the lessons we have learned, and the love we continue to have for her.

To aunt Tracy, the strongest person I have ever known, I want to say thank you. Thank you for being an exceptional aunt, for always being there for me, and for showing us what it means to be resilient, compassionate, and positive. You have always been so important to me, and I will forever treasure the moments we shared, the laughter we enjoyed, and the love you had for all of us. You have left an indelible mark on my life, and your legacy will continue to inspire generations to come, as I know you had so much love and such an impact on everyone in our family in the short time we were graced with your presence.

I cannot believe you're gone from our lives so soon, and now I have to remember you for longer than I've known you. I will never let go of the incredible memories that were made possible - only by you.

Rest in peace, dear aunt Tracy. You will be forever missed, but never forgotten. I love you ❤️

“ Oh my...where to begin? I have known Tracy (and her siblings) since she was a little girl. Her mom, Ann, and my mom were very best friends. We essentially grew up together. I always admired her strength and courage, even when she was very young. She grew into a lovely wife, mother and business owner. From the many tributes online, she was someone you could go to if you needed help or advice. She certainly loved her family and was so very proud of each one. She left a mark in her shortened life. I know she is with her dad now whom she dearly loved. God bless you Tracy. Not goodbye...I will see you later.
