“ Sending many prayers in the time of your loss. May the Lord watch over you and know that our thoughts are with you at this time. From Mary and Zig's middle daughter, Mary Ann and husband John Taylor of Crossville, Tennessee.

“ Every Thanksgiving I take a few minutes and think about my Aunt Dot. For years our family spent every Thanksgiving holiday with her family. My memories include fun with my cousins, food, games, home movies and those endless card games! And, of course, there's no one who could make mashed potatoes like Aunt Dot's! I lost my mother 4 years ago and I know it's never easy, but we have to envision Mary, Pert and Dot up in heaven playing three handed Pinochle! My thoughts and prayers go out to all the family- JoAnn

“ I always considered Aunt Dot my favorite aunt. She and Uncle Calvin spent nearly every Thanksgiving with us while I was growing up in Indiana. We always watched the Macy parade and then the Wizard of Oz while they were there. Then the guys fell asleep watching the football games after the wonderful feast we had. She was always interested, positive, supportive, and very funny. I loved it when the Losey family came to visit. She was the youngest Spanke, and the last of the 11 brothers and sisters to join the family in heaven, and I know they are excited to welcome her there. Clarence never stops talking about her mashed potatoes, which never had a single lump- and I never can make them just like Aunt Dot's.
