“ I remember when Uncle Troy and family would come to visit his Tennessee family. I will never forget how polished, intellectual, and thoughtful he was. I was especially impressed, as a poor little country girl, how well dressed and sophisticated he was. There seemed to be a special bond between Uncle Troy and my Mom (his sister Cleo). Rest In Peace Uncle Troy.

Uncle Troy was to me about the same as my sister, Ann said. My Mother, Cleo was especially connected and protective of this "little brother of hers". God Bless and RIP. Linda Crowder-Moountford
