“ Hi, Guy and Kristy, you probably don't remember me but I was one of Troy's nurses from Henry Ford, Troy was a very sweet young man, who didn't like me to take his temp in is ear, who loved playing his video games, and I believe football, I'm happy you allowed me into your home to help take care of Troy, God bless you and your family

“ Your a angel you can fly, your free from pain from yourself, and everything the world has to offer. I love you Troy, you've impacted my life alot, you were one strong boy who grew into a handsome man, a fighter, someone who never complained even though you had ever reason, I'm proud to call you my cousin.

“ Well where to start, you are my brother and the most amazing person I have ever known. I can't explain the love and happiness you have spread within people along your life. I am a better person and understand the importance of family and life because of you. My heart breaks into pieces knowing you will never be among us physically but my heart is also so filled with joy that you are free. I am and are going to miss you everyday that I live, but I know your watching out for us and you would want all of us to come together at this time. There will never be a day that I do not think about you and the things that you have taught me. I love you so much Troy and thank you so much for being the person that you were and I know you still are as our angel. I will see you again. ...
