Bro. Varghese John , I knew him since 1961. The first time I met him was at the house of Rev.K.O.John. Later he worked with Bro,ME,J,apen at kannauj U.P. Bro, M.J.Eapen who still works there. Bro. M.J.Eapen I were working in Patna , Bihar. Then we were transferred to Kannauj.Then later I came to Patna and Bro. Varghese John was sent to Kannauj to work with Bro. Eapen. Then he moved to N.Delhi.

Few years ago, one of my classmates in (Youthmal seminary) , a North Indian came and stayed with me in Phila. He asked me if I knew Bro. V.John and I said I knew him . My friend told me how disciplended he was and he had the integrity in Christian life. I was so happy to hear about him. Then after several years later I met him at Detroit and we had some talk and we remembered the old things.

When I was in Kerala, I visited his dad in Kayyoor few days before his wedding. and I thought what a godly man Bro. Varghese John's father is Bro. V, John is fortunate to have such a godly father. Rev. M.V.Abraham. Philadelphia. I am glad that his sister lives in Philadelphia.

What a beautiful ceremony. Your father would have been overjoyed to see his kids and grandkids share such sweet and loving stories and memories. We are praying for Auntie and the whole family during this time missing your father. Our love and affection are with you all, may the Lord comfort you during these days.

“ *From John and Jessie Kurian, Dallas:
Our acquaintance with dear Varghese Achayan dates back to family gatherings connected with his niece Joslin's marriage to our son Rohan.
It was such a blessing to listen to the tributes shared here at the funeral and to hear particularly about his life of testimony and faithful service to the Lord. The blessed legacy of Faith that he leaves behind in the lives of his children and grandchildren is so beautiful to see. The memory of a righteous man brings honor to the Lord.
As we share your hope we join in your grief at the passing of Achayan and pray that our God of all comfort will keep Ammamma and all of you in his embrace and console you.*

Pachayan as we called Varghese John was a quite, simple person, honest in all his dealings and deeply committed to God. He was always willing to share his home with those who he thought would need help and support. Both in Mussoorie and Delhi where the family lived my wife and I experienced their hospitality and care. I was glad for the opportunity for the long conversation with Pachayan and Ammamma a couple of months ago while I was in Kentucky. My only regret is that I couldn't get to visit him one last time owing to the Covid pandemic. May his soul rest in peace!
Our heartfelt condolence to Ammamma, Happy, Honey and Henry and their families*

“ Veli Daddy was a wonderful uncle who exhibited his maturity and love always through his genuine chats with me (and all family and friends), and his care in the words he spoke toward and about others. He was always so respectful toward others and did not busy himself in petty chatter or haughty speech. I appreciate his humility and peaceful demeanor and consider it to be such a strength and example. Our family will miss his presence so very much. Even amid COVID, I am so thankful that I got to carefully see him twice this summer as we were quarantining with our parents in Michigan. Thankful for every dear memory with Veli Daddy.
