“Velma Mance was the nicest lady. I grew up in Huntington Woods and was friends with Jim, and also John Mance. Jim and I were in Boy Scouts together - he beat me because I became a Life Scout while Jim went on to become an Eagle Scout. Velma was kind and was an ideal wife for John - I think they were married for at least 75 years!”

“ John and Jim: I am very sorry to hear about Velma's passing. I know it will be very hard for you in the months ahead. Losing dad a year ago almost did me in. However, 1 year later I still miss him deeply but have sort of adjusted to life without him. My condolences again to your family. in case you don't remember, I live on the corner 4 houses from you.
