“ Vera, Clark and Carol were like 2nd parents & a sister to me back in the late 60's to mid 70's when I was a teacher at Trinity and away from home. Such wonderful Christian people - they displayed it in their words and actions and loving & caring gestures. They were in large part responsible for making my years there such good ones. I'm still recovering from my own little health crisis making being there an impossibility, but my thoughts will be with all who mourn her and rejoice at her heavenly reward. Vera, may your body rest in peace as you already now partake of the eternal celebration in heaven with your beloved Clark & Carol. Love from one of your many adopted daughters. Virginia Gerharter
