“ Vera had a heart of gold and a set of wings with it. Always worried about everyone else but herself. She loved her children and grandchildren so much, she talked about them all the time. Knowing that she is out of pain, walking, growing her flowers up there and that we'll all see her one day at the golden gates. With the line of work I do some of my clients become my family and Vera was definitely FAMILY!! I will truly miss you Vera til we meet again. Love ya Roxie
