“ I met John, years ago, as a young Royal Oak Police Officer. He was probably one of the strongest men I ever met. He used to amaze me as he forced tree trunks around with his bare hands. A great guy to talk to and very entertaining. I miss his stories!

“ Papa, Growing up, I had the opportunity to spend a lot of time with you, and for that, I am eternally grateful. I'll miss you a lot, but we'll meet again in Heaven. I'm sure you're telling all of the angels your jokes right now, you were a funny man! I love you so much, and I'm just really glad that you're happy now. Love, Heather

“ John, now that you're up in heaven with my mom & dad would you please pick them a tune on the banjo, or strum a few on the guitar? I know my mom's been missing that for so long now.
