“ Vince and I worked at Comerica bank together. He was my pal. I always told people that when you find someone like Vince, hold onto them because they are few and far between. My sister, Vince and I along with other friends would go to the bar together to get our rock and roll on. We would eat dim sum together at a restaurant near Oakland University, our favorite restaurant! He would hang out with my sister and I at our house we rented. I'll never forget you Vince. I hope you felt loved in your last days. Miss you my friend, Gina Meyers Siporin

“ The picture of Vince below, waving, is how I'll always remember him. I never got to know Vince personally, but I would always see him in the halls at Comerica and he always had that smile and that wave. Kindness radiated from him.

Rest in Peace, Vince and thank you for your contributions to the bank! Sending peace and love to Vince's family and friends.

“Vince, was always my go to person for anything at our work place. He was my work husband and I loved him dearly. He always knew how to make me laugh. We had many happy years together, whether at work, the Casinos or just sharing a meal he would make sure we were always smiling and laughing. Boy, do I have stories to tell!! I'll miss you, my dear. “Bogie and I went to high school together in Divernon, IL. When his family moved away, I lost a dear friend. In those days, it was hard to keep up with friends so far away. A few years ago, we found each other on facebook and were able to reconnect and talk about those high school days. I'll miss you, buddy.

“ Vicente (Bogie) was the gentlest, sweetest man ever! He was extremely introverted but loved his family. We will miss you Bogie!
