“ With a Heavy Heart, I'm sending condolences to Vicki's family. Meeting her in the 5th grade and going through the rest of my school days with her. I will always remember my Tall, Blonde friend with the longest eyelashes, I've ever seen. I remember her gentleness and laughter and my childhood, teenage days and life were/are better, for having known her.

“ To Cory and family, all of you are in my thoughts and prayers. Cory, your Mom always showed me love, compassion, and reminded me of hope when I lost it. She helped so many people. In the days that come, remember the good times, celebrate her life.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ My prayers to Vicki's loved ones. She could laugh so easily and enjoy life. She, Patti, and Joann loved Queen when they were a new band. But not me. Several years ago, I started liking them. And when I hear one their songs, I think of the three amigos. I know what the days ahead will be like, but one day, you will not hurt as much as today. One day, the tears will break away and be replaced by smiling at a memory that you shared with her. Much love and God's rest.
