“ We were so sorry to hear of the illness and then passing of Bill's cousin Vic. It is times like this that we contact relatives and wish that we had not kept putting off getting together. We know that it is very difficult losing not only Vic Sr. but also Vic Jr. in a short period of time and wish there was something we could do to make it better. They must be better off even though it is not easy for those left behind. We can hopefully receive some comfort from the many good memories of those who are no longer here. Love Bill and Nancy Logan

“ Julie & I always enjoyed spending time with Vic and the whole family. We were blessed with the opportunity to share time with Vic and will keep Louise, Anne and all of the family in our thoughts and prayers. My memories will forever be of Vic at the Cottage in what I always thought was a Perpetual State of Happiness!
